Review of the Rural Zone Subdivision Provisions - PUBLIC OPEN DAYS

Waitomo District Council is reviewing (and potentially updating) the Rural Zone subdivision requirements of the Operative Waitomo District Plan for the coastal areas of the district, including Mokau, Awakino and Te Waitere.

An Issues and Options Paper has been prepared by Council. The paper has no legal effect in itself, but is a useful way to generate discussion and feedback around Rural Zone subdivision related issues.

We would appreciate your feedback regarding:

- The current Rural Zone subdivision provisions;
- Any issues you have in relation to rural subdivision; and
- Options you may suggest to address any subdivision related issues.

Open Days are being held at the following times and locations:

- Saturday, Nov 5 – Te Waitere Boating Club, 9am-12 noon
 - Saturday, Nov 12 – Mokau Hall, 9am-12 noon
- Council staff and consultants will be available to discuss any subdivision related issues or ideas you may have.

Copies of the Issues and Options Paper and the Council Feedback Form can be obtained from the WDC Office, Queen St, Te Kuiti or phone the Customer Services Team on 0800 932 4357.

Alternatively please visit our website:
