

Newspapers

The NZ Herald and the Waikato Times is delivered daily to the library.

These are held for approximately one month so you can catch up on any news you may have missed.

Internet Access

We're part of the Aotearoa People's Network Kaharoa. This means we have free computers and internet available. We also offer free Wi-Fi if you have your own device.

Programmes for Preschoolers

These are run weekly during the primary school term, made up of story time, crafts and more. Please contact the library or our website for information on programmes currently running.

Coffee and Cake Book Group

On the third Wednesday of each month at mid-day we host a Book Club. Review your latest book with us and discover new titles and authors. The group is very informal and always looking for fellow booklovers to come along.
