

Overview

Heritage

Under the RMA, it is a matter of national importance to recognise and provide for the protection of historic heritage from inappropriate subdivision, use and development. Historic heritage is defined under the Act and includes sites, structures, places and areas, archaeological sites and sites of significance to Māori including wāhi tapu. Historic heritage is important as it provides a sense of identity and place for communities and a record of where we have come from.

For mana whenua, sites and areas carry deep levels of meaning and association. They provide a tangible connection to whenua (land), ancestors and to significant historical events. The sites and areas of significance to Māori chapter specifically focuses on these sites.

Building and Structures

The stories and history behind buildings and structures provide present and future generations with an understanding of our past. The architecture and style of buildings and structures are also key visual reminders of how people lived, how buildings were constructed and used, the technology that existed, and what businesses and activities were important for communities. In Waitomo district there are a range of buildings and structures which have been identified as being of importance to our heritage. Some of these buildings and structures have also been identified and listed by HNZPT. The scheduled heritage buildings and structures are listed in SCHED1 and are separated into two categories – Category 1 are those that are listed as being of special or outstanding historic or cultural significance by HNZPT. Category 2 buildings are of district historic or cultural importance, listed either by HNZPT or by Waitomo District Council.

Subdivision, use or development of a site or its surroundings (including the placement of signs, modification of scheduled buildings or structures) can affect heritage values, resulting in a loss of knowledge and links to the past. However, development if carried out in an appropriate manner can assist in conserving heritage values. It is therefore important that buildings, items and sites with historic heritage values are identified and protected to encourage activities to be undertaken appropriately.

Archaeological Sites

An archaeological site is any place (including buildings, structures or shipwrecks) that was associated with pre-1900 human activity, where there is evidence relating to the history of New Zealand that can be investigated using archaeological methods. There are over 1,000 archaeological sites recorded in the district. The Waitomo District Council website provides a map showing archaeological sites in the district which have been identified by the New Zealand Archaeological Association (NZAA) Site Recording Scheme. In most circumstances, archaeological sites are managed by HNZPT. Other than in the Te Maika precinct, this plan only manages archaeological sites at the time of subdivision (through assessment criteria), or where the site has been identified as a significant archaeological site.

Under the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014, it is unlawful to destroy or modify an archaeological site without obtaining an archaeological authority from HNZPT before work is started. If a previously unknown archaeological site is discovered (for example, when you are undertaking earthworks), work must stop. The process to be followed is outlined in the advice notes to this chapter.

Significant Archaeological Sites

SCHED2 contains a list of archaeological sites that Waitomo District Council has identified as being significant and is seeking to protect the history and values of these sites for future generations. The sites are significant because of the high archaeological values associated with them. The sites are all publicly accessible which means that they have high educational values and have the potential to be enhanced further through the placement of interpretative information.

Objective

Refer also to the relevant objectives in Part 2 District - Wide Matters

HH-O1. The contribution that historic heritage makes to Waitomo district and its communities is conserved for future generations.

Policies

Refer also to the relevant policies in Part 2 District - Wide Matters

Heritage buildings and structures

- HH-P1. Identify and schedule historic heritage buildings and structures having regard to the following matters:
1. Historical values; and
 2. Importance to the community; and
 3. Architecture and construction features; and
 4. Setting and context; and
 5. Rarity, representativeness and integrity; and
 6. Scientific qualities; and
 7. Technological qualities.
- HH-P2. Promote the restoration and reuse of heritage buildings and structures to assist in retaining historic heritage for future generations.
- HH-P3. Retain the relationship between heritage buildings and structures, and their sites and surroundings, including the view of the identified heritage building or structure from public places.
- HH-P4. Recognise benefits from earthquake strengthening, fire protection and accessibility upgrades whilst ensuring the appearance including views of and through windows, and external heritage features and values of the buildings and structures are not unduly compromised. Designs which consider complementary materials and detailing and do not screen architectural features are preferred.

- HH-P5. Provide for additions and external alterations to buildings and structures where they are:
1. Consistent with the scale, detailing, style, materials and character of the heritage item; and
 2. Retain cultural and heritage values; and
 3. Do not unduly compromise the site or surroundings of the building or structure including the contribution the building or structure makes to the streetscape.
- Whilst recognising the benefits gained from the addition or alteration to the improved functionality and/or liveability of the building or structure.
- HH-P6. Recognise and provide for signs in a manner that does not compromise the heritage values of the buildings and structures. Signs should not cover or partially cover architectural features and should complement the values of the heritage building or structure.
- HH-P7. Enable interpretive signs that explain the stories and significance of the building or structure to the community and district, providing such signs do not compromise the values of the scheduled building or structure.
- HH-P8. Ensure temporary signs are not affixed to buildings or structures given the limited life of the sign and the risk of repeated damage to the building or structure.
- HH-P9. Ensure new or relocated buildings or structures located within the site or surroundings of a building or structure are of similar materials and detailing and do not obscure windows and architectural features. New or relocated buildings should be of a smaller scale.
- HH-P10. The site or surroundings (as applicable) of any heritage building or structure must be protected to the extent that it contributes to the heritage values.
- HH-P11. Manage the repositioning of a building or structure on a site so that the building or structure maintains a relationship with adjoining public spaces including roads, and the setting of the building or structure is not unduly compromised.
- HH-P12. Buildings or structures should not be relocated unless:
1. Alternatives to relocation have been investigated; and
 2. There is significant community benefit, and the building is restored; and/or
 3. The building or structure has fallen into significant disrepair and will be restored on its new site because restoration is not economic on its existing site; and/or
 4. Relocation of the building or structure allows for improved longevity or structural safety; and
 5. Relocation of buildings and structures within the same community occurs where possible.
- HH-P13. Protect buildings and structures from demolition unless:
1. The condition of an item poses an untenable risk to human life, and
 2. All reasonable alternatives have been investigated and considered, including restoration, reuse or relocation, and these alternatives have been found to be impracticable and uneconomic.

Significant Archaeological Sites

- HH-P14. Retain significant archaeological sites for future generations to help promote understanding of New Zealand's history.
- HH-P15. Protect significant archaeological sites by ensuring they are not destroyed, and by requiring activities, particularly earthworks, on the site or adjoining the site to avoid adverse effects on the archaeological values of the site.
- HH-P16. Signs are only anticipated where they are official signs, or where interpretive information is displayed about the site, and the design of the sign does not compromise the values associated with the significant archaeological site.
- HH-P17. Ensure activities on significant archaeological sites avoid adverse effects on the site.
- HH-P18. Ensure activities located within 25m of the mapped extent of a significant archaeological site avoid adverse effects on the site in the first instance, and where avoidance is not possible, remedy or mitigate adverse effects, having regard to:
1. Protecting the cultural, and archaeological values present and their setting; and
 2. Reducing the potential to lose or damage cultural and archaeological values; and
 3. Providing the ability to interpret the place and its relationship with other scheduled features; and
 4. The site's sensitivity to change or capacity to accommodate change without compromising any cultural and archaeological values; and
 5. Any opportunities to enhance interpretation of the significant archaeological site.

Rules

The rules that apply to historic heritage are contained in the tables listed below. To undertake any activity, it must comply with the rules listed in:

- HH - Table 1 - Activities Rules; and
- HH - Table 2 - Performance Standards
- Any relevant provision in Part 2 District-Wide Matters; and
- Any relevant provision in Part 3 Area Specific Matters.

Where an activity breaches more than one rule, the most restrictive status shall apply to the activity.

Refer to Part 1 - How the Plan Works for an explanation of how to use this plan, including activity status abbreviations.

Advice note: Activities may also require an authority from Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga (HNZPT).

Advice notes

Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga

Activities may also require an authority from Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga.

Accidental discovery protocol

In the event that an unidentified archaeological site or a wāhi tapu site is located during works, the following applies:

- Work must cease immediately at that place and within 20 m around the site;*
- The Heritage New Zealand Regional Archaeologist must be notified and an application made for the appropriate authority if required;*
- Notify the appropriate iwi groups or kaitiaki representative of the discovery and ensure site access to enable appropriate cultural procedures and tikanga to be undertaken, as long as all statutory requirements under legislation are met (New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014);*
- If human remains (koiwi) are uncovered then the Heritage New Zealand Regional Archaeologist, NZ Police and the appropriate iwi groups or kaitiaki representative must be notified. Remains are not to be moved until such time as iwi and Heritage New Zealand have responded;*
- Works affecting the archaeological site and any human remains (koiwi) must not resume until appropriate authority and protocols are completed.*

If the protocol is not adhered to then Heritage New Zealand can take out prosecution proceedings under the New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014.

Signs within a road reserve

Any sign proposed to be located within a road reserve requires the approval of the road controlling authority.

Existing signs

Where a sign has been erected that does not meet the criteria for an existing use under the Act, Waitomo District Council may require that the sign be removed.
